REPORT
—OF THE—
Comptroller of the Treasury
—OF THE—
STATE OF MARYLAND

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,
ANNAPOLIS, January 7, 1904.

To the General Assembly of Maryland:

I herewith respectfully submit to your Honorable body my annual report for the fiscal year ended September 30, 1903, in pursuance of Section 9 of Article 19 of the Code of Public General Laws.

RECEIPTS.

The amount received into the Treasury proper, from all sources during the fiscal year, was $3,636,449.07, as will appear by reference to Statement "A". This, together with the amount of $1,187,295.68 in the Treasury proper September 30, 1902, aggregates the sum of $4,823,744.75, exclusive of the Fund's account, a detailed statement of which will be fully shown in Statements "E" and "F".

The sum of $3,636,449.07 shown in Statement "A" as the receipts into the Treasury proper during the year, does not represent the usual or ordinary receipts accruing to the State, and there should be deducted from this amount the sum of $449,043.16, as will hereafter appear.

First. The Legislature of 1902, by Chapter 200, authorized a new State bond issue of $600,000, to be known as the "State

Loan of 1902," for the purpose of erecting new State buildings and the completion of others, viz:

State House Annex.....	$250,000
Heating Plant, furnishing, etc., Annapolis.....	140,000
Completion of Fifth Regiment Armory.....	120,000
House of Correction Annex.....	90,000

But $400,000 of this loan was issued during the fiscal year 1902, bearing date of July 1, 1902, as it was deemed wise to issue only such an amount as the necessities of the work demanded, therefore it became necessary on July 1, 1903, for the remainder of said loan, viz: $200,000 to be issued. Bonds to this extent were sold as of that date and, while taken by the State for its sinking funds, nevertheless the moneys arising from such sale came into the Treasury as an extraordinary receipt.

Second. During the fiscal year to wit December 11, 1902, there was paid into the Treasury including penalty and interest, the sum of $225,017.92, being in full of all taxes upon the gross receipts of the Northern Central Railway Company from the year 1896 to 1902 inclusive. By reason of such arrearage of taxes, said amount came into the Treasury also as an extraordinary payment. The above sum was covered into the Treasury as the result of a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in favor of the State of Maryland, in the case of the Northern Central Railway Company, the effect of which is so far-reaching and important to the State that I desire to quote from my former report to His Excellency, John Walter Smith, in order that your Honorable body may be fully advised as to its scope and meaning:

The important question presented in this case was, whether the provision in Chapter 16 of the Acts of 1880, whereby the said Northern Central Railway Company was liable for an annual tax of one-half of one per centum upon its gross receipts within the State of Maryland, was subject to repeal by any subsequent Legislature, and if so, whether or not in fact the said act was not repealed by Chapter 559 of the Acts of 1890, which imposed an annual tax of one per centum on the gross receipts of all railroads within the State of Maryland operated by steam.

It was contended by the Railway Company that the said Act of 1880 being "An act to adjust and settle finally by agreement all pending controversies between the State of Maryland and the Northern Central Railway Company," was a valid contract, and as such under the Constitution of the United States, which prohibits a State from making any law impairing the obligation of a contract, could not be put an end to or impaired by an act of the Legislature of Maryland without the consent of the company.

It was contended by the State that the Act of 1880, Chapter 16, did not constitute a contract between the said railway company and the State which was beyond the power of any subsequent Legislature to repeal or impair, because the provision in the Constitution of 1850, antedating the charter of the company (ch. 250 of 1854) provides, that all charters granted by the State may be altered or repealed, a most wise provision and one incorporated in every constitution since that time, therefore the said Railway Company in accepting the consolidation of certain railroads under ch. 250 of the Act of 1854 was presumed to know that the immunity from taxation was liable to repeal by future Legislatures.

It was further contended by the State that the Act of 1890, imposing a tax of one per centum on the gross receipts of all railroad companies, whose roads are worked by steam, incorporated by and doing business within the State, repealing all acts in conflict therewith, repealed by necessary implication Chapter 16 of the Act of 1880.

The contention of the State was thoroughly established by the decision of the Court of Appeals of Maryland and afterwards sustained by a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States. Justice White in delivering the opinion of the latter court, said that "where a legislature is inhibited by the constitution from making an irrepealable charter it cannot create a new contract and bring into being a new corporation, and yet by the charter of such corporation give rise to the irrepealable contract which the constitution absolutely prohibits."

By reason of the great importance and value to the State of this decision a brief history of the case may be given.

In 1827 a charter was granted to the Baltimore and Susquehanna Railroad Company by chapter 72 of the Act of 1827, one of the chief provisions being, immunity from taxation. In 1854, by chapter 250 of the act of the same year, the stockholders of the Baltimore and Susquehanna Railroad Company were authorized to consolidate with the York and Maryland Line Railroad Company, the York and Cumberland Railroad Company and the Susquehanna Company, forming one corporation by the name of the Northern Central Railway Company, in which consolidation was transferred among other things to the new company, the property, rights, privileges and immunities belonging to the several old companies. This exemption from taxation under the Act of 1854 was enjoyed by the said company until the year 1866, when the General Assembly passed a general assessment law, chapter 157, providing of course for the assessment of all property, in which, however, was a provision repealing in general terms all laws exempting property from taxation. A more specific act, however, was passed in 1870, ch. 362, repealing "every provision contained in the charter or supplements thereto, of every railroad company incorporated by the laws of this State or contained in any law heretofore passed by the Legislature of the State whereby the stock or property, real or personal, of any railroad company * * * is exempted from taxation." Two years later, the Legislature, by chapter 234 of the Act of 1872, imposed its first gross receipt tax upon steam railroads, viz: one-half of one per centum annually.

The records of this office show that under this statute, the tax of one-half of one per centum on the gross receipts of said company was levied from April 1 to December 31, 1872, amounting to $3,082.37½, and for each year thereafter up to and including the year 1879, the total tax for the eight years aggregating $29,762.54. This tax the said Railway Company refused to pay, and upon suit being brought by the State, a judgment was recovered in favor of the company, from which judgment an appeal was taken by the State to the Court of Appeals, with the result of a reversal of the judgment of the lower court by said Appellate Court, thus holding the company liable for said tax.

Shortly afterwards the Legislature of 1880 convened, and passed the Act of that year, chapter 16, hereinbefore mentioned, in pursuance of which the said company paid to the State on April 13, the sum of $29,762.54, being the tax in full from 1872 to 1879, both years inclusive.

The said railway company continued to pay regularly the tax of one-half of one per centum as levied until the year 1890, when the Legislature of that year, by chapter 559, increased the annual rate of tax upon the gross receipts of steam railroad companies to one per centum. This increased tax the company paid under protest until the year 1896, when it refused to do so any longer. Hon. Robert P. Graham, comptroller at that time, thereupon placed for suit, in the hands of Hon. George R. Gaither, attorney, the tax for that year, amounting to $13,142.35.

The case was tried in the Superior Court of Baltimore city, a verdict being rendered in favor of the company. From this judgment the State took a successful appeal to the Court of Appeals, where the case was decided and remanded January 10, 1900. At the retrial of the case, the State won, the company taking an appeal with the result of an affirmation of the judgment of the lower court by the Court of Appeals on December 7, 1900. From this judgment the company took an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, with the result as hereinbefore mentioned.

Throughout the entire course of this case the State has been ably represented by the Hon. George R. Gaither, formerly attorney-general of Maryland.

It is but proper to add, that by virtue of the above decision, the said company becomes liable to and has paid the increase tax under the provisions of chapter 120 of the Act of 1896, which recites: "Eight-tenths of one per cent. on the first one thousand dollars per mile of gross earnings, or on the total earnings if they are less than one thousand dollars per mile, and one and one-half per cent. on all gross earnings above one thousand dollars per mile and up to two thousand dollars per mile, and when the earnings exceed two thousand dollars per mile two per cent. on all earnings above that sum," under which law the tax due by the said Northern Central Railway Company amounted to $30,763.37 for the year 1902, not including penalty or interest.

Third. Statement "A" also shows a payment from tax on Baltimore city stock of $46,539.65. Of this sum, $24,025.24 belonged to the fiscal year 1902, but was received into the Treasury October 1, 1902, thus making two payments fall within the fiscal year just closed. The revenue from this source in 1901 was $49,549.22, and as the amount was so much less than that of the previous year I did not feel justified in accepting the amount as full settlement for that year. By direction of the Attorney-General, I received same as so much on account, which I again did in 1903, suit for the balance being instituted and is now pending.

DISBURSEMENTS.

In Statement "B" is shown in detail the character of disbursements and the Acts of Assembly authorizing the same, aggregating $3,676,334.33, or in excess of that of the year previous by $259,957.62, occasioned mainly by larger disbursements on account of the "State Loan of 1902" and by increased appropriations made by the Legislature of 1902.

The balance in the Treasury proper at the close of the fiscal year was $1,147,410.42. I wish in this connection to call your attention to the fact that against this balance there must be charged certain definite sums, specifically dedicated, and which must remain inviolate; such as the proceeds of sales of bond issues, schools and sinking fund taxes. After providing for the integrity of the sinking funds, there yet remained to be charged against this balance of $1,147,410.42, the following amounts:

State Loan of 1902.....	$267,174.32
State Building and Improvement Loan.....	40,027.45
Public School Tax.....	346,434.68
<hr/>
Total	$653,636.45

leaving a normal balance in the Treasury October 1, of $493,773.97, with which to meet the heavy October disbursements under the Acts of the last Legislature.

FREE SCHOOL FUND.

Statement "E" will give you in full the receipts and disbursements on account of this Fund. The total receipts during the year, including the balance brought down from the year previous, are $87,899.09, while the disbursements during the same period were $79,272.24, leaving a balance of $8,626.85. In this Statement you will observe a receipt of "Baltimore and Ohio Rights, $4,451.87," which, together with the sum of $1,409.68, received from the same source during the fiscal year 1902, aggregates $5,861.55. This sum was invested by the Treasury officials in United Railways and Electric Company's First 4 per cent. Gold Bonds, costing $5,592.50, the par value of which is $6,000, and placed to the credit of this Fund, thereby increasing its annual revenue $240.00. In explanation of this I would state that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company in increasing its stock issue, gave the right to its stockholders to increase their holdings if they saw proper so to do. The stock at the time being above par, the Treasury officials sold the State's rights to subscribe for additional stock, for the sum aboved named. $5,861.55.

SINKING FUNDS.

In Statements "E" and "F" are exhibited in detail the several transactions of these Funds. As every dollar to their credit during the previous year was invested, no balance was available for the fiscal year ended September 30, 1903. The receipts during this period were $377,853.61, with disbursements of $363,688.71, leaving a balance of $14,164.90. These moneys were invested in securities, the par of which is $359,000, as follows:

$ 25,000	Havre de Grace City 5's, costing.....	$ 27,343.61
134,000	Allegany Co. Con. Debt 3½'s, costing....	136,345.10
200,000	State Loan of 1902 3's, costing.....	200,000.00
	Cash balance carried down.....	14,164.90
<hr/>		<hr/>
$359,000	Total	$377,853.61

The above item of $200,000 of the "State Loan of 1902" represents the remainder of the $600,000 Loan, and bears date of

July 1, 1903, the entire issue therefore being taken by the State as outlined in my former Report, the total holdings in said Funds being $2,347,751.90, of which $1,886,587 is in bonds of the State.

OYSTER FUND.

In Statement "H" is shown in detail the operations on account of this Fund. The balance brought down from the previous year was $37,820.42, which, added to the receipts during the fiscal year of $59,655.17, aggregates $97,475.59, with disbursements of $63,657.39, leaving a balance on hand September 30, 1903, of $33,818.20.

While this balance is apparently satisfactory, yet the receipts accruing to this Fund since the close of the fiscal year, show a heavy shrinkage, especially from licenses to dredge for oysters, as will be seen by the following table:

Years.	No. issued.	Amounts.
1902	838	$40,960.08
1903	609	28,416.49
1904	371	19,172.81

Most of these licenses are issued early in the season—September and October—and the number given for the fiscal year 1904 as 371, virtually embraces the entire issue for that season.

While said statement shows disbursements of $63,657.39, yet it is proper to state that of this amount $14,075.75 was expended for repairs, largely occasioned by improvements upon the steamer Governor Thomas, which economy imperatively demanded, and which will not enter so largely into next year's expenses.

STATE DEBT.

The funded debt of the State is clearly shown in Statement "J", aggregating $7,101,926.13, or an increase over the year previous of $200,000, less $7,400 of the 3 per cent Exchange Loan of 1889 maturing during the year and therefore redeemed. While the gross debt shows an increase, yet by reason of investments for the sinking funds during the year, the net debt of $2,616,704.23, is less by $180,564.90 than the year previous.

ASSESSMENT AND LEVY OF 1903.

Statement "K" continues to demonstrate an increase in the assessable basis of the State, aggregating at the close of the fiscal year $673,337,299.

PUBLIC SCHOOL TAX.

Statement "L" shows the receipts and disbursements on account of this tax during the fiscal year. The receipts during the year were $750,408.94, which, added to the balance on hand October 1, 1902, of $330,708.79, aggregate $1,081,117.73, or a slight increase over that of the year previous. The disbursements during the fiscal year were $734,683.05.

This tax is apportioned by the Comptroller, quarterly, viz: October 1, January 1, March 15 and June 15, as prescribed by Section 103 of Article 77 of the Code of Public General Laws. Sections 98 and 102 of said Article prescribes the manner of such apportionment.

In this connection I wish to say that a uniform method of apportionment had been made by every Comptroller for thirty years, viz: Under Section 102 of said Article the apportionment to white schools was made upon the basis of both the white and colored population between the ages of five and twenty years, while to the colored schools, under Section 98 of said Article, the apportionment was made to "the colored schools of the several counties and the city of Baltimore, in proportion to their respective population between the ages of five and twenty," which construction embraced only the colored population, and not both white and colored.

During the year a writ of mandamus was issued against the Comptroller in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county, directing a different mode of apportionment. The result was a dismissal of the writ by a unanimous court.

The case was carried to the Court of Appeals, and after a careful consideration of the question by said court, a decision was rendered, whereby the apportionment to the white schools should be made to the several counties and the city of Baltimore, in proportion to their respective population, both white and colored, between the ages of five and twenty years, and the apportionment to the colored schools should be likewise made to the several counties and the city of Baltimore, in proportion to their respective population, both white and colored, between the ages of five and twenty years, which opinion I have scrupulously observed.

FREE SCHOOL BOOKS.

Statement "M" shows the receipts and disbursements on account of this fund, together with a summary showing a deficit of $213,983.88 to the Treasury since 1896, at which time the fund was established, the tax rate never having been sufficient to relieve the Treasury from bearing a part of the expenditure for this purpose.

STATE TOBACCO INSPECTIONS.

Table No. 7 shows the receipts and disbursements on account of this fund during the fiscal year, the receipts being $55,265.74, while the disbursements during same period were $54,786.29, leaving as net earnings to the State the sum of $479.45.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

The new State Building at Annapolis, known as the Court of Appeals Building, provided for under Chapter 607 of the Acts of 1900, is now virtually completed. Besides the Court of Appeals, it contains the General Public Library, the Law Library, the offices of the Comptroller, the State Treasurer, Tax Commissioner, Land Commissioner and the State Fishery Force, thus bringing together, in commodious and comfortable quarters these various departments of the State Government. The Annex to the State House, authorized by Chapter 200 of the Acts of 1902, and which is now in course of construction, will add greatly to the convenience and comfort of the General Assembly, and will, when completed, be in every way a credit to the State. The old State House, of Colonial times, and about which cluster so many historic associations, is untouched in this improvement, remaining as it has for years, the pride of all Marylanders. It will be necessary for the Legislature to make an additional appropriation for the completion of the Annex, and I heartily recommend that ample provision be made for this purpose.

Not only in Annapolis, but elsewhere the State has recently erected some handsome and substantial public buildings, notably the Fifth Regiment Armory, the Maryland Penitentiary and the Springfield State Hospital. All these buildings are of the most modern character and admirably adapted to the purposes for which they were erected.

In order that you may have some idea as to what the State has been doing in this direction, I submit the following table, which, by the way, does not include any sums spent for State buildings, such as Armory for Troop A, Maryland Agricultural College, Asylum and Training School for Feeble-Minded, Emergency Hospital at Annapolis, etc.

Maryland Penitentiary.....	$1,250,000
Springfield State Hospital.....	480,000
Annexes to House of Correction.....	170,000
Fifth Regiment Armory.....	420,000
Heating Plant and furnishing at Annapolis.....	140,000
Court of Appeals Building.....	290,000
Annex to State House.....	250,000
<hr/>
Total	$3,000,000

CONCLUSION.

It has been my aim in the foregoing summary, of the various tables of this Report, to bring before your Honorable body every fact that bears upon the financial condition of the State, so that in dealing with the question of appropriations and other important financial matters which will be brought before you and upon which you will be called upon to pass, you may have a clear and intelligent understanding of the exact situation. The high credit of the State and the excellent condition of its finances will be, I doubt not, a matter of satisfaction to your Honorable body.

In retiring from the office of Comptroller, which I have had the honor to fill during the past four years—that I may go back into private life—I beg to renew my obligations to Hon.

Murray Vandiver, State Treasurer, and to those with whom I have been immediately associated in my own office and to others with whom I have during this period been brought into official intercourse. A recollection of these valued associations will always be a matter of genuine pleasure to me.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSHUA W. HERING,
Comptroller.
